

A Guide to MLK Day Programming, January 2021

For Students

1. Instructions for Participating in MLK Day Programming has the following information:
 - a. A reminder of the Special Schedule on January 18
 - b. Instructions for all students – whether they are in-person learners, remote synchronous learners, or remote asynchronous learners – so every student has a clear understanding of how to participate in MLK Day programming depending on their status.
 - c. It is especially important that all remote learners read this document

2. The MLK Day 2021: Programming Schedule is a “live” document that contains the most up-to-date schedule for Monday, January 18, and it includes links to videos and webinars that will be broadcasted in students’ classrooms. These links will all be available by Monday morning.

3. Optional workshops will happen the afternoon of January 18. Sign up is required by Friday, January 15 at 9:00am ET. You can sign up for workshops via this form, and you can read the workshop descriptions on this document. Please note you will need to log in to Google Drive with your Deerfield credentials in order to sign up for workshops
