- Agree to keep it updated as necessary.

Definitions and Program Description

Jenn Taylor and Nina Otterson of Deerfield Academy, Deerfield, MA, will be the Program Leaders for The Bahamas travel program, which will run from (including travel dates) March 6, 2020 through March 15, 2020. On the afternoon of March 6, Students and Program Leaders will depart campus via bus to Bradley International Airport and fly to Fort Lauderdale, Florida. They will spend one night in Florida at a hotel, and fly to Nassau, The Bahamas on Saturday March 7. From March 7 until March 8, Students and Program Leaders will be based out of Nassau, engaging with local non-profits, studying marine ecology, and going on island tours. On Sunday, March 8, Students and Program Leaders will fly to Eleuthera and will be based out of the Cape Eleuthera Institute/The Island School on Eleuthera, The Bahamas until March 15. On March 15, 2020, Students will fly out of Eleuthera and return to Boston Logan Airport.

The Program begins March 6, 2020 when Students depart Deerfield Academy campus with the Program Leaders and extends until Students arrive at Boston Logan Airport on March 15, 2020.

1. Code of Conduct and Adherence to Standards

- The Student and his/her/their parents/legal guardians understand that:
 - By participating in the Program, the Student is subject to both rules and regulations of Deerfield Academy and any other institution, company, or organization that may be involved regarding conduct in the Program and will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the Program for violations thereof.
 - Consumption of nonprescriptive drugs will not be tolerated.

Initial Here

- Consumption of alcohol will not be tolerated.
- Use of tobacco products will not be tolerated.
- The Student agrees:
 - To abide by all policies, rules, and regulations of Deerfield and any other entity involved in the program and the laws of the United States, and the laws of the host country.
 - To obey all directives issued by Deerfield, the Program Leader(s), and any associated individuals, institutions, or organizations.

2. Program Participation

- The Student is expected to participate in all activities that are part of the Program, including assigned preparatory and/or post-program work.
- The Student and his/her/their parents/legal guardians understand that failure to do so may result in the Student's termination from the Program.

3. Program Modification and Cancellation

The Student and his/her/their parents/guardians understand and agree that Deerfield reserves the right to cancel or modify the Program before or during its operation for any reason including, but not limited to, emergencies, low enrollment, unavailability of one or more facilities or personnel, and changed conditions.

4. Termination of Participation

- The student understands and agrees that, while participating in the Program, he/she/they will not engage in inappropriate conduct, including, but not limited to, the use of physical or verbal threats or violence, open abuse of the customs or mores of the community, or unauthorized absences from activities.
- The Student and his/her/their parents/legal guardians:
 - Understand that, in its sole discretion, Deerfield or the Program Leader(s) may terminate the Student's participation in the Program at any time, including before departure or during the Program. Reasons for termination may include, but are not limited to, inappropriate conduct or other behavior by the Student deemed detrimental to the best interest of the Program, an accusation of a violation of the Academy's Rules and Expectations, emergencies, or health or safety conditions or considerations. Removal for disciplinary reasons may lead to disciplinary action upon return to Deerfield, with the full range of responses to infractions up to and including dismissal. Due to the nature of the program there are no appeal rights to a termination decision.
 - Agree that, if the Student's conduct should cause him/her/them to be removed from the Program, the Student and his/her/their parents/legal guardians will bear the costs of return transportation. Such termination shall not diminish or otherwise alter the Student's and parents'/legal guardians' obligation to make any payment required for the Program, and Deerfield shall not be required to make any refund. Deerfield's disciplinary process need not be followed to terminate a student from the program. The Program Leader(s) or Deerfield may make a unilateral decision at any time if there is a reasonable belief that inappropriate behavior has occurred.

5. Acknowledgement of Risk

- The Student and his/her/their parents/legal guardians:
 - Understand that travel generally and the activities associated with it and with the Program present risks to the Student personally and to his/her/their property, some of which may result in serious personal injury or death, and that these risks can be a consequence of not only the Student’s actions or negligence but also the actions or negligence of others (including but not limited to the program directors or other attendees), or travel conditions or equipment.
 - Understand that foreign travel presents additional risks, which can include, among other things, unfamiliar or different terrain, climate, food and drink, customs, laws, social and sexual mores, safety practices and regulations, communications, criminal and law enforcement activities, acts of war or terrorism, disability access, driving practices, disease risks, and access to or the provision of health care. Acknowledge that they are responsible for evaluating the risks that the Student may face and agree that any activities that Student may take part in, whether as a component of the Program or separate from it, will be considered to have been undertaken with the Student’s and his/her/their parents’/legal guardians’ approval and understanding of any and all risks involved. This includes, without limitation, risks associated with the consumption of alcoholic beverages, use of illegal drugs in any form and injury or death from causes such as traffic accidents, negligence, crime, assault, and/or theft.
 - Acknowledge that Deerfield or its officers, agents, employees, and third party provider(s) are not responsible for any personal injury, loss, or damage to the Student’s person or property, whether resulting from acts or omissions of any persons or entities, from the operation or condition of facilities or premises, from acts of war or terrorism, or from acts of God or nature.

The potential activities students may participate in are:
Transportation	Students may use the following modes of transportation: vans, buses, taxis, airplanes, motorized boats, bicycles, kayaks, sailboats, and canoes.
Accommodation	Students and Program Leaders will stay in a hotel in Florida and Nassau. In Eleuthera, Program Leaders and Students will stay in open-style dormitory separated by gender with several bunks per room.
Activities	The majority of the trip will be spent learning scientific research methods, engaging with topics of sustainability, exploring the natural environment on The Bahamas, and participating in outdoor adventure activities. All activities on Eleuthera take place in a wilderness setting without immediate access to advanced medical care. Specific activities may include, but are not limited to, the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Handling marine wildlife • Using scientific instruments • Participating in lectures and discussions • Swimming in the ocean • Jumping off a high rock into the ocean • Snorkeling • Spearing lionfish • Running • Hiking • Sailing • Biking • Spending considerable time outdoors with exposure to sunlight, rain, plants, animals, and insects • Playing beach volleyball • Attending a bonfire

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Beach clean up • Going on an island tour to visit local farms, hotels, beaches, and schools During unsupervised free time, students will have the primary responsibility to use good judgment and manage risk appropriately. The above list is not exclusive and other activities may be added at the discretion of the Program Leaders.
Potential Biological Hazards	We strongly recommend consulting the Center for Disease Control and Prevention website (www.cdc.gov) for specific information, vaccination recommendations, and other risk management tools.

6. Release of Claims

In consideration of Deerfield accepting the Student into the Program, the Student, his/her/their heirs, executors, administrators, representatives, successors and assigns, and the Student’s parents or legal guardians, hereby release, discharge, hold harmless, indemnify and defend Deerfield, its officers, trustees, faculty, employees, agents, third party provider(s) and representatives (hereafter “Released Parties”) from:

- any and all claims that may arise from any cause whatsoever and wherever, whether resulting from acts or omissions of any persons or entities, from the operation or condition of facilities or premises, from acts of war or terrorism, or from acts of God or nature, or risks associated with the consumption of alcoholic beverages, use of illegal drugs in any form and injury or death from causes such as traffic accidents, crime, intentional torts, assault and theft;
- responsibility for any accident, illness, injury, or any other damage or consequence arising or resulting directly or indirectly from the Student’s participation in the Program;
- any liability, damage, or injury that may be caused by Student’s negligence or willful acts committed prior to, during or after participation in the Program; and any liability, damage, or injury caused by the intentional or negligent acts or omissions of any other participant in the Program, or caused by any other person.

7. Activities Outside Program

If the Student arrives before the start of the Program, chooses to remain at the Program location or elsewhere after the Program ends, or should the Student leave the Program voluntarily or involuntarily, the Student will not be, or will cease to be, a participant in the Program and his or her or their parents/legal guardian and the student will be fully responsible for his/her/their self.

8. Acknowledgement of Privacy Practice

I hereby acknowledge that I have received a Notice of Privacy Practices that describes how the Health Services of Deerfield Academy may use and disclose my child’s health information. I give permission to Medical Director, previously described program leaders, or other chaperones to disclose such information to facilitate medical treatment. The Notice of Privacy Practices is posted at <https://deerfield.edu/almanac/health-center/privacy-practices/>

Furthermore, we hereby authorize the previously detailed program leaders, or other chaperones of the trip, to execute and deliver any and all medical permission or releases for said student while engaged on said trip.

9. Severability

It is understood and agreed that, if any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Agreement which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications. To this end, the provisions of this Agreement are declared severable.

10. Construction and Scope of Agreement

The language of all parts of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any party. This Agreement, with the Program Description and forms, is the entire and complete agreement of the parties relating in any way to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement supersedes any earlier written or oral understandings or agreements between the parties. It is further agreed that should a claim, action or controversy arise concerning the program or the student the jurisdiction and venue of any shall be Franklin County, Massachusetts and shall be construed pursuant to Massachusetts law.

I understand that the Student's participation in this international trip is not mandatory. By signing this form, I acknowledge that I have had the opportunity to ask questions and obtain whatever information I required to fully inform myself about this international trip.
