Deerfield Academy Approved Tutor List

Updated December 2023

The following individuals are private tutors who have been vetted by Deerfield Academy and meet with students in-person in the Boyden Library. You may contact them directly for information about their availability and rates.

Math & Science

- Andy Hilnbrand: andy@quotiented.com

Math

- Scott Grey: sgrey@bement.edu

Note: Students' teachers are always the best resource for helping students succeed in a given course; therefore, we strongly encourage all students to consistently communicate with their teachers and to attend teachers' office hours for extra-help before, and in addition to, engaging with any private, supplemental tutoring.
